John 3:3, 16-21

Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God."

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Everyone who believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is already condemned... this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God."

FLOWERS

Children’s Sermon

Pastoral Prayer

Hymn #211 “I Love Thee”

Please remain standing for the Gospel reading from Matthew 22:35- 40; 24:12-14

35 and one of them, an expert in the law, asked him a question to test him. 36 “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” 37 He said to him, “ ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ 38 This is the greatest and first commandment. 39 And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

12 And because of the increase of lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But the one who endures to the end will be saved. 14 And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world, as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.
